A large sailboat, the 'Ovni 365', is shown sailing through choppy seas. The boat has a white hull with blue accents and a dark deck. The name 'Ovni 365' is prominently displayed in a stylized font, with 'Ovni' above '365'. Below the boat, the tagline 'La référence intégrale' and 'The lifting keel reference' is written. Freedom at sea....

The experience of the Alubat with lifting keel yachts and the reputation of Marc Lombard in performance cruisers were united for the first time to give birth to the OVNI 365: a complete success for the pleasure of sailing, comfort and astonishing performance.

On the wind or off the wind, on long distance voyages or coastal cruises, the OVNI 365 will satisfy the most demanding clients. When anchored you can enjoy the comfort of her interior finish in the least accessible creeks where others cannot venture.
